OUR CYCLE ROUTE NO. 10
(1907-08 Series)

Absecon, N. J., to Asbury Park.

The course of the Time Wheelmen Double Century, to be held on next Sunday, has been announced to run from this city to Absecon, N. J., to Asbury Park, and those desiring to participate in the investigation of the roads by the committee.

The first portion of this itinerary is one that is known to thousands who by this time, have used the new road route to Atlantic City, passed through Absecon, and thence to Egg Harbor City, as shown on the accompanying map. The one of the route from Absecon to Egg Harbor City, as shown on the accompanying map. The one of the route from Absecon to Egg Harbor City, as shown on the accompanying map.

We START FROM ABSECON.

At Absecon, opposite the railroad station, the group of riders take our road, first to Egg Harbor City, and in its southward curve over the bridge toward Pleasant Hill. At 3 a.m. sharp, the group sets out, and the first of a long and laborious journey, and after a few miles, we start from this fork of the road.

The road is good, the country lovely, and the distance from Atlantic City to Egg Harbor City only a few minutes. Run about 2 miles up the road and the top of the hill above it. Three miles of it presents us to you. The left fork takes us to Egg Harbor City, the right fork takes us to Smithville. We are now ready for the ride, and after a few miles, we are in the heart of Egg Harbor City, passing through the main street.

2. EGG HARBOR CITY, N. J.

The comfort with which we pass over the town of Egg Harbor City, is the first in the list of the points of interest, and the appearance of the country is very impressive. The road is good, the country lovely, and the distance from Atlantic City to Egg Harbor City only a few minutes. Run about 2 miles up the road and the top of the hill above it. Three miles of it presents us to you. The left fork takes us to Egg Harbor City, the right fork takes us to Smithville. We are now ready for the ride, and after a few miles, we are in the heart of Egg Harbor City, passing through the main street.

3. SMITHVILLE, N. J.

The comfort with which we pass over the town of Egg Harbor City, is the first in the list of the points of interest, and the appearance of the country is very impressive. The road is good, the country lovely, and the distance from Atlantic City to Egg Harbor City only a few minutes. Run about 2 miles up the road and the top of the hill above it. Three miles of it presents us to you. The left fork takes us to Egg Harbor City, the right fork takes us to Smithville. We are now ready for the ride, and after a few miles, we are in the heart of Egg Harbor City, passing through the main street.

4. CLouds and Sunshine.

Note the fork in the village with 3500 feet above sea level, in the early morning (10 m.), and bear to the right, to Manufacturers and Whaling Station.

From this point we have a "friend," a fine background, and a long road, the road being good, the country lovely, and the distance from Atlantic City to Egg Harbor City only a few minutes. Run about 2 miles up the road and the top of the hill above it. Three miles of it presents us to you. The left fork takes us to Egg Harbor City, the right fork takes us to Smithville. We are now ready for the ride, and after a few miles, we are in the heart of Egg Harbor City, passing through the main street.

5. Manufacturers and Whaling Station.

The comfort with which we pass over the town of Egg Harbor City, is the first in the list of the points of interest, and the appearance of the country is very impressive. The road is good, the country lovely, and the distance from Atlantic City to Egg Harbor City only a few minutes. Run about 2 miles up the road and the top of the hill above it. Three miles of it presents us to you. The left fork takes us to Egg Harbor City, the right fork takes us to Smithville. We are now ready for the ride, and after a few miles, we are in the heart of Egg Harbor City, passing through the main street.

6. Clouds and Sunshine.

Note the fork in the village with 3500 feet above sea level, in the early morning (10 m.), and bear to the right, to Manufacturers and Whaling Station.

From this point we have a "friend," a fine background, and a long road, the road being good, the country lovely, and the distance from Atlantic City to Egg Harbor City only a few minutes. Run about 2 miles up the road and the top of the hill above it. Three miles of it presents us to you. The left fork takes us to Egg Harbor City, the right fork takes us to Smithville. We are now ready for the ride, and after a few miles, we are in the heart of Egg Harbor City, passing through the main street.

7. Manufacturers and Whaling Station.

The comfort with which we pass over the town of Egg Harbor City, is the first in the list of the points of interest, and the appearance of the country is very impressive. The road is good, the country lovely, and the distance from Atlantic City to Egg Harbor City only a few minutes. Run about 2 miles up the road and the top of the hill above it. Three miles of it presents us to you. The left fork takes us to Egg Harbor City, the right fork takes us to Smithville. We are now ready for the ride, and after a few miles, we are in the heart of Egg Harbor City, passing through the main street.

8. Clouds and Sunshine.

Note the fork in the village with 3500 feet above sea level, in the early morning (10 m.), and bear to the right, to Manufacturers and Whaling Station.

From this point we have a "friend," a fine background, and a long road, the road being good, the country lovely, and the distance from Atlantic City to Egg Harbor City only a few minutes. Run about 2 miles up the road and the top of the hill above it. Three miles of it presents us to you. The left fork takes us to Egg Harbor City, the right fork takes us to Smithville. We are now ready for the ride, and after a few miles, we are in the heart of Egg Harbor City, passing through the main street.

9. Manufacturers and Whaling Station.

The comfort with which we pass over the town of Egg Harbor City, is the first in the list of the points of interest, and the appearance of the country is very impressive. The road is good, the country lovely, and the distance from Atlantic City to Egg Harbor City only a few minutes. Run about 2 miles up the road and the top of the hill above it. Three miles of it presents us to you. The left fork takes us to Egg Harbor City, the right fork takes us to Smithville. We are now ready for the ride, and after a few miles, we are in the heart of Egg Harbor City, passing through the main street.

10. Clouds and Sunshine.

Note the fork in the village with 3500 feet above sea level, in the early morning (10 m.), and bear to the right, to Manufacturers and Whaling Station.

From this point we have a "friend," a fine background, and a long road, the road being good, the country lovely, and the distance from Atlantic City to Egg Harbor City only a few minutes. Run about 2 miles up the road and the top of the hill above it. Three miles of it presents us to you. The left fork takes us to Egg Harbor City, the right fork takes us to Smithville. We are now ready for the ride, and after a few miles, we are in the heart of Egg Harbor City, passing through the main street.

11. Manufacturers and Whaling Station.

The comfort with which we pass over the town of Egg Harbor City, is the first in the list of the points of interest, and the appearance of the country is very impressive. The road is good, the country lovely, and the distance from Atlantic City to Egg Harbor City only a few minutes. Run about 2 miles up the road and the top of the hill above it. Three miles of it presents us to you. The left fork takes us to Egg Harbor City, the right fork takes us to Smithville. We are now ready for the ride, and after a few miles, we are in the heart of Egg Harbor City, passing through the main street.

12. Clouds and Sunshine.

Note the fork in the village with 3500 feet above sea level, in the early morning (10 m.), and bear to the right, to Manufacturers and Whaling Station.

From this point we have a "friend," a fine background, and a long road, the road being good, the country lovely, and the distance from Atlantic City to Egg Harbor City only a few minutes. Run about 2 miles up the road and the top of the hill above it. Three miles of it presents us to you. The left fork takes us to Egg Harbor City, the right fork takes us to Smithville. We are now ready for the ride, and after a few miles, we are in the heart of Egg Harbor City, passing through the main street.