WHERE TO GO
AND HOW TO GET THERE

OUR CYCLE ROUTE NO. 18
Philadelphia to Reading—A Picturesque Ride.

Let us consider our route from Philadelphia to Reading, and then to Harrisburg, as a series of attractive little excursions by short-cycle travel. Our intention is to select a route which will appeal to the eye and make for sport and enjoyment.

We commence at the Negro Institute in center of our line of travel. From there we pass through the city of Reading, and then on to Harrisburg, where we terminate our tour. Our route is marked by a number of interesting points of interest, including the Lebanon Valley and the Susquehanna River. We have included in our itinerary a number of small towns and villages which may be visited without much inconvenience. The reader is invited to make a tour of the country along this line, and to enjoy the scenery and pleasant surroundings.

DEFEAT CAMPOS

Senior Campeche Skillfully Resisted, But Campos was Finally Overwhelmed by His Opponent.

The battle was fought on December 16, 1969, at the Campeche Stadium, and ended with a decisive victory for Campeche. He was able to stand up to the attack and eventually forced his opponent to retire. The crowd that had gathered to watch the fight was no doubt disappointed, but they were impressed by the skill and endurance of Campeche.

TERRIBLE TRAGEDY

The incident occurred last night in the center of the city of Chicago, and resulted in the death of a young man. The exact circumstances of the tragedy are still not fully known, but it appears that the victim was involved in some sort of accident or violent incident.

The Chicago Police Department is continuing its investigation into the matter, and will provide further information as it becomes available. The community is urged to refrain from speculation and to allow the authorities to complete their work.
